Defeated Men Are For Withycombe

The following announcement has been published by the republican state committee:

To the Voters of the State of Oregon:

We were candidates for the nomination for the office of governor in the republican primaries, and were fairly and honorably defeated by the Hon. James Withycombe. He has always been a true and loyal republican—is a good, clean man with a good, clean record, and in our judgment would make a good, clean governor.

Each of us sincerely and earnestly appeal to our respective personal and political friends throughout the state to harmonize and unite the republican party and to rally to the support of republican policies and principles and to vote for and loyally support all of the nominees on the republican ticket. Oregon should no longer be politically misrepresented in the state or national capitals, and should be placed in the republican column where it rightfully belongs.

VALUABLE ADVICE.

Citizens of Ashland Should Profit By the Following Statement.

Doan's Kidney Pills were used by this Ashland resident.

Their merit was shown—the story told.

Now comes further evidence.

The testimony is confirmed.

The remedy was tested—the results lasted.

Could Ashland residents demand stronger proof?

It's Ashland testimony. It can be investigated.

H. D. Spencer, blacksmith, 90 Eighth street, Ashland, Ore., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills to good advantage and can recommend them. They gave me quick and lasting benefit, when my back and kidneys bothered me. All kidney sufferers would do well to use Doan's Kidney Pills in preference to any other kidney medicine."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Spencer had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

The KITCHEN CUPBOARD

COOKING PEARS.

SUPPER MENU.
Baked Eggs.
Watercress.
Russian Salad.
Stewed Pears. Sponge Cake.
Iced Tea.

EARLY pears, even if they are a little green, may be sometimes served to advantage. They are nice stewed, especially if a little lemon is added to bring out the flavor of the fruit.

Suggestion For Stewing.

Stewed Pears.—Pick baking pears with a fork in several places and put them in a baking jar—about half a dozen, say. Put in half a pint of sugar, half a pint of water and a tablespoonful of molasses and bake the fruit as for apple sauce. For dainty palates two cloves and a bit of lemon peel may also be added.

Pear, Banana and Lemon Salad.—Peel the pears and thinly slice the lemons, removing all white pith and pips. Surround a dish with alternate slices of pear and lemon. Skin and cut the bananas into lengths, then into squares and arrange them in the center of the dish. Cover the whole with gelatin. When nearly set scatter over the blanched and split almonds. Lastly, over all, through a forcing pipe, decorate with cream in different forms.

Putting Up Pears.

Ginger Pears.—Peel and cut thin eight pounds of hard green pears, add a fourth of a pound of candied ginger, the juice of four lemons, a glass of water, four pounds of granulated sugar and the rind of a lemon cut in long, thin strips. Boil three-quarters of an hour and put away in glass jars or glasses.

Spiced Seckel Pears.—Take nine pounds of seckel pears and cut out the blossom end with a sharp penknife. Leave stems and skins on. Put five pounds of granulated sugar and a pint of vinegar in the preserving kettle with a teaspoonful each of cinnamon, cloves and mace tied up in thin muslin bags. When the sirup has come to the scalding point throw in the pears, a few at a time, so as to keep them whole, and cook until tender. Remove with a skimmer and put in others. Pack the pears in cans, boil the sirup until rich and thick, pour over the pears and seal.
